

ACLL DRAFT PROCESS 2022-2023 SEASON

- 1) All managers will be given a sheet with all available players for their division. This sheet will have player names and evaluation scores from tryouts, as well as MUST PICK players, Required Sibling Pick players, and optional Sibling Pick players.
 - a. Sibling Pick players are defined as players registered with ACLL from the same household (registration address)
- 2) Draft order:
 - a. All drafting divisions with more than 1 team (Senior, Junior, Intermediate, Minor, Farm, Softball) will use Little League Draft Plan B, Alternate Method with Serpentine Draft: Team Manager will select a number out of a hat for draft order. (1 through the number of teams being drafted.)
- 3) There will be 1 'Manager Pick' and 1 'Coach Picks' allowed for each team. Selected managers and coaches must have completed volunteer form and background check prior to draft or they will not be eligible for a 'Manager/Coach Pick'. 'Manager Pick' and 'Coach Pick' draft round will be determined based on the Little League International tables shown below.
- 4) If there are siblings in the same draft the manager drafting the first sibling will have the option of using the very next pick for the sibling, if the manager opts to not do this the 2nd sibling will be back in the draft and eligible. If a 'Sibling Pick' is used with a 'Coach Pick' the draft round will be determined by the table below.

Baseball

	Player Age
Baseball Draft Round	Little League	Intermediate	Junior	Senior
6	6-8
5	9-10	11	12	13-14
4	11	12	13	15
3	12	13	14	16

If there is a Manager pick and a Coach pick and/or a Coach/Manager pick plus a sibling pick and both players are the same age, the first player will go one round prior to the draft round listed above. Example: Minor division team has 1 manager and 1 coach, 'Manager Pick' and 'Coach Pick' are both 10 year old players. The first player would be listed as round 4 and the second player as round 5.

Softball

Softball Draft Round	Player Age
	Little League		Junior	Senior
6	6-8
5	9-10		12	13-14
4	11		13	15
3	12		14	16

If there is a Manager pick and a Coach pick and/or a Coach/Manager pick plus a sibling pick and both players are the same age, the first player will go one round prior to the draft round listed above. Example: Team has 1 manager and 1 coach, 'Manager Pick' and 'Coach Pick' are both 10 year old players. The first player would be listed as round 4 and the second player as round 5.

- 5) Now the draft starts, each manager will get TWO minutes to select a player per round.
 - a. For all drafting divisions with more than 1 team (Senior, Junior, Intermediate, Minor, Farm, Softball) Little League Draft Plan B, Alternate Method with Serpentine Draft: Team 1 will draft first, then 2, 3, 4 and so on. The second round will be draft in reverse order, Team 4, then 3, 2, 1. Odd rounds will be in numerical order, even rounds will be in reverse order.
- 6) All lottery picks will be made at the end of the draft from a hat. (Lottery picks are players who did not tryout but need to be placed in that division).
 - a. A player cannot be drafted if they did not try out
 - b. A player will not move up a division as a lottery player unless:
 - i. Player age mandates the division
 - ii. Player Agent determines the player creates an unsafe situation for players in the lower division
- 7) All 12 year old's MUST be picked by major division teams.
- 8) All 11 year old's NOT drafted by a major division team, MUST be drafted in minors.
- 9) All 9 year old's NOT drafted by a minor team, MUST be drafted in farm.
- 10) All returning players MUST play at or above the level played the previous year (example: players returning from Minor division not drafted by Major or Intermediate must be drafted in the Minor division)

* If there are any questions or concerns with the draft process, please see the ACLL Baseball Player Agent (Tu Tran), Softball Player Agent (Jose Serna) or President (Nicki Pacheco). ****